Thank him so much. I am alone the only living descendant, great grand child - I have all his previous buttons. Would gladly have a copy of it - made for Dr. Hunsaker.

My head is so heavy and confused I will have to stop. With kindest regards to all my old friends and especially your dear mother, Mrs. Nell Tobey

P.S. I enclose Mrs. Kennell's reply (over)

Please let me know if I can do ^(if help you) more, and if Mr. Sumner will agree to do me the favour to Mr. J.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

Mrs. Rose Kemp Brooman

Please excuse my way of replying to your inquiries. I wish I knew more and more of value to you.
I remember the Sanford home, which we focused going down town from our home, and the beautiful lilacs bushes, and perimies - but I do not recall a
"Sanford Hotel".

Dear Mrs. Brooman,

I, too, was sorry not to find you at home when I dropped in to call.

Your sweet mother showed me the lovely garden, and chatted along very happily.

Greeting to her and a good hope for her big birthday - Dec. 15th

I was very sorry that I happened to be out, when you called upon mother this summer. Although she told me of your visit and how delighted she was, her memory has failed and it is rather difficult for her to repeat things correctly. However, I am most grateful, that she has nothing more serious, which might cause her much suffering.

After your visit I happened to come upon some family records, which were most interesting and which you may be able to tell me

2. Scorpaenopsis diabolus (Pinn.)
The Cory Scoring - David only once a year for a week or two in the summer.

"The Cory family - David Cory was a younger brother of my grandfather's. Mrs. Rogers: much interesting information from my book -" something about. As you may remember, I have spent much time gathering data on the Rogers family. While I now write, mother is telling me old stories. Should anything happen to mother, it is not likely that I could spend any more time on this hobby, but it is fascinating.

Mother's grand father Rogers had a sister, Amy who married Martin Hawley. They had fifteen children. One, called Annie, married D. V. Sanford. From this you can see the light, as to my enquiry. I called upon Stella Proctor last week and she could recall the names of all but one:

1. William Henry. mar. Adelaide Proctor 2. Thos. Howard. " Harriet Bulter 3. Mary - " Robt. Weller 4. Azuba - " Asa Weller, junior 5. Ann - " Dr. - Evans
6. Malinda - " an Orser.
7. Calista Amy Sanford... David Cory.
8. — Jane? - " Richard Bullock

No. 7, as I understand it, died and Richard married Christopher

I have no information that no first copy of the first copy was made (printed a last copy) because of the fact that the first copy was made by the first copy.

My mother's sister Rebecca married ^{in 1850} a son of Col. Richard Christopher English Bullock again to a sister of your mother. I thought of you at once and decided to write. Frank Bullock was well revered in the family history, but he is gone. I wish that I had known the type and had been able to chat about it while you were here.
 Moreover, if you can assist me, I shall be most grateful. Can you verify the foregoing list and fill in the blank names? I understand that Richard had David Cory, Tyle and a Mrs.
^{My mother} Remondell? By his first wife. Would you have any data on the old records in a Bible? I think that this Richard Bullock was a son of the old Colonel.
 Stella says that David Cory was named after Mr. Cory, who married Calista and also, her sister Cora Proctor was named after him.

The next puzzle, which appeared was this:
 May Webb thought that her grandfather was William Henry, but was not certain. Stella says 'No'. When Henry was married but once, but his father, J. W. who married Annie Hawley did live in Brighton and after Annie died, he married

By a former marriage David Cory, Tyle, and Jennie Remondell — I think leads me to a confirmation of the thought that his first wife was a daughter — because of children being named for David and his wife (probably Calista Remondell)

This I do not know - but Dr. Henry Sanford who married a Proctor - I think their daughter was Mrs. George ^(Anna) Trueman, who lived in Rochester Thos. Downard Sanford. It built the house and was his Julia's husband. I can appreciate this as far as William Henry is concerned: he married a Proctor, he may have managed the hotel, which I have then all are called the "Proctor House" - perhaps built by them.

the descendants here appear to have definite dates on Richard Bullock and - Sanford, I would be glad of them.

Julia Casey and that Joseph, Orrin, George, Rosalie and May's mother Theresa Elizabeth were this family. I have been told that Mrs. Dorman Sr. was married three times. Of course, J. D. junior was the brother of William Henry. He married Harriet Butler and they were the parents of Mr. C. M. Sanford.
I do not know that he was married more than once.

I think not.

I was rather surprised that J. D. Sanford Sr. ever lived in Brighton, but, of course it could be.
Apparently, either he or his son William Henry ran a hotel, which was called the Sanford House. I understand that Wm. Henry did run a hotel and it stood back of where Tom Waller's butcher shop used to be on the corner.

I do not recall

Did J. D. Sr. build or run that or was it Wm. Henry?
May told me that Wm. Henry ran the hotel and after it burned he built the house, which used to stand where the little park is now. I recall the old house. Should May be wrong. I wonder if his father built it. We do know that Julia Sanford and her children lived there, but the point is, did

Dear Mr. Freeman.

I was very much interested in your letter, which I received on Monday. I cannot give you much information but I will give you the address of a cousin in Kapanee who will, I am sure be able to tell you the things you wish to know. I have photo's of Great Grandfather John Hawley, and some of Grandmother's sisters and brothers, but I have no records or dates except Grandmother Amy Jane Hawley's birth, Sept-6th 1822. and Grandfather John Nix's birth July 30th 1812. That is in the old Bible, but not the date of their marriage.

Tunt Content - used to visit at my home, when I was quite small and I remember her well, she married Mr. Gibbard and they had one son, "Sanda." She called him in her letter. I have his picture and a picture of his small son.

Olivia married a Wadden and Mary - Jones.

William and Albert lived with me side in Japan and my father was named after them.

The cousin I referred to in Japan is the daughter of Albert Hawley. I was interested to learn of my Roger and Martin Hawley - because I had just known as far back as John Hawley and his wife Prudence.

I hope Cousin Mary can tell us still more of the family. It is very interesting to trace all and by the way a great-aunt of mine

SQDN.-LDR. L. F. WELLS

Weston, Sept. 2—Sqdn.-Ldr. L. F. Wells, described in an overseas dispatch yesterday as the commander of an R.A.F. party which operates an airfield in Yugoslavia "in the midst of fantastic warfare between the Germans and the Partisan forces of Marshal Tito," is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wells, Humber-view Cresc., Weston.

He joined the R.C.A.F. in November, 1940, and after training at Rivers, Man., went overseas in September, 1941. Several months later he was posted to the Far East. While travelling around the southern tip of Africa he met his brother, Douglas, who is a mine superintendent in Rhodesia. One other brother, F.O. Stanley Wells, was killed on active service.

"The Nazis really hate us," said Wells to an R.C.A.F. interviewer in Yugoslavia. "They consider Yugoslavia is theirs, and it maddens them to think that we can operate a regular air transport service into the country."

many with their families. A Berlin broadcast reported "great unrest" in Brussels.

"It may be that tonight I have the honor for the last time of speaking over Radio Brussels," a Nazi announcer said in a broadcast last night from the Belgian capital. "The enemy is approaching rapidly."

A member of the resistance movement who arrived recently in Britain from his homeland said regular army officers composed the backbone of the underground force.

"The Belgian army numbered about 1,000,000 men when it was disbanded by the Germans and, with the exception of about 70,000 who are now doing forced labor in Germany, practically every member is in the resistance movement," he said.

The Nazi announcer on Radio Brussels, in conceding that he was talking at that microphone for the last time, appealed to the population to remain calm.

"We Germans always will remain correct—we shall never rob nor pillage you," he solemnly assured his listeners. "We shall not harm anybody. Do not show any hatred against us or against those in your country who worked for us."

"I know you are friends of the British and that you are eagerly awaiting the British and American forces," said S.S. Leader Hans Friedrich, who next came to the microphone.

Dear Ray:

I am afraid that I am not as prompt a correspondent as you are. The questionnaire is returned herewith, with some blanks that mother is unable to answer. She is also unable to recall anything about Annie Hawley. In her note enclosed she mentions the Wells family bible in the possession of Thapwell Tobey, this might answer some questions in that family.

Mr. Ray Freeman
Brighton

Canada.

Phoebe's mother, and Juba Sanford, Eileen Cleland's grandmother, and who the other 3 were, I don't know. My grandfather Sanford's second family were very young, when he died, my mother only being 2 years old, and Aunt Rosaline 3 years, they didn't know much about all these half brothers and sisters. I'm really sorry Ray, I cannot tell you more, but it's just impossible.
Your mother is certainly wonderful, and I do hope she may be spared to you and Ray for many years to come. Please kiss her for me Ray.
Now as I'm sick with a cold, I must - sorry to bid you adieu. I am your old friend, May 21st, 1923.

Dear Ray -

Thank you so much for your most interesting letter, and also for your kind wishes for the new year.
I am so glad I cannot enlighten you so very much on my early life, but will do my best, as far as I know.

The first J. A. Sanford was the father of my grandfather William Sanford, who for his first wife married Miss Howard. I do not know how many children they had 26 Elgin Ave.,

Dorset, Jan. 4th, 1923.

But Miss Hawley died, and Wm. Henry Sanford married for his second wife, Julia Casey, who was my Grandmother, who lived and died at our house. Wm. Henry Sanford and Julia Casey had 5 children. Uncle Joe Sanford, Uncle Arin Sanford and Uncle George Sanford, Rosalin Sanford, Theresa Elizabeth Sanford, who was my mother, and married Adam Clarke Webb P. L. S. and M. L. S., and Dennis, Lindsay and I were their children.

Yes, I told Wm. Henry Sanford and his first ^{wife} who was a Miss Hawley, kept the Sanford Hotel in Brighton, but that was burned, and then Wm. Henry S. built the large frame house which was torn down on the corner, where our beautiful park is now. My Grandmother sold this home, and she and Aunt Rosalin came to live with us, and both died there.

It just comes to me now the names of a few of the Sanford-Hawley children.

Chamberlain Sanford, Hattley Sanford, Norman Sanford and Rose, who was Mrs. John Grafton, March 29, 1943.

Dear Ray,

Very many thanks for the seeds. I can't tell you how delighted I was. They were promptly planted and are among a hundred or so other pots of seedlings, all well up and thriving in our sunny windows.

We have had most tremendous fun this winter doing over this nice old house. We were told at frequent intervals that it was a dreadful winter but I found it to watch a fox walk across the lawn, to hear the wings of a partridge in the woods and to walk beside the lovely little streams. The spring birds are arriving so I feel that the gardening season is almost here.

I spent last week in Toronto and felt that it was a sheer waste of time. There is so much to be done here that I hate being away.

I hope you and your mother are quite well and we shall look forward to having you come and see us during the summer.

Yours very sincerely,

Marion G. Hawley.

The Church of the Recessional was built as a memorial to the life and works of the great soldier poet Rudyard Kipling. This church is a reproduction of the Parish Church of Margaret in Rottingdean, England, where Kipling was inspired to write his poem "Recessional".
Kipling's house was moved the end of August - it was the bank failed besides ours. Kipling's house is in his new house but it is very nice - quite a good house. The house is in Pasadena 6 and is a very nice house. The house is in Pasadena 6 and is a very nice house.

Dear Mr. Freeman, - I have just read over again your kind letter of July 20, and I feel rather ashamed that I have taken so long to reply. We were so pleased to get the snapshot of your mother - she would not dream that she was highly six years old. You are both fortunate in having each other, as in my sweet family. A us here, she is attending University, is in her second year. Her twin brother, Campbell, has been on active service in the Middle East since May. We knew a furlough and change of work was about due early in November. Then no word came for weeks. A week ago a cable came that he is in England. It is a relief to us that he is back in England. He is the one who is interested in the family tree, and I am keeping your letters and all correspondence referring to it for him when he returns.

We were much interested, and very glad to have the picture of Mr Martin Hawley homestead. Mr Pibbards grand father was Martin. He would have measured the snail. We suppose having it framed.

I am enclosing a snap of our family taken two years ago when they were all here for Christmas. I send the group, because it is quite good of Mr Pibbard, and perhaps the last one he had taken.

We miss him at every turn, but know he is gone to a better land, where we must all follow. It was God's will and He knows best. I have rich memories of our family. I have passed on to you, and am glad to meet

Dear Mr. Freeman

Your letter, with inquiry, has remained so long unanswered. I meant to reply promptly - then forgot. When immediate Christmas demands were on, I proceeded to rest awhile.

With reference to the C. B. Bullock family - I seem not to have made myself quite clear. David, Lyle, and James Reynell were all of whom I have knowledge - The Reynell family visited in Brighton (David's home) in 1885 - as I spent much time with their daughter, Martha Gehlert (her name, in my birthday book, is Willie B. Reynell -) It seems to me that Miss Christopher may have married a sister of Calista May Sanford, for his first wife - and my niece Rebecca (then 17 yrs. of age) for his second wife.

(Annet Rebecca - born April 21st '33 married Christopher C. Bullock - Aug. 13 - 1850 - taken from my book in the Long Family.)

Hope I have made something clear.

It is a pleasure to hear of your dear mother, as she advances toward the hundred mark - I hope she may attain.
Please do remember me kindly to her, and tell her to keep up the good work.

My husband and I are on the way. He will be eighty, three months after I am seventy-five on April 26th. Now he is the Veteran in Prisoners' Aid work of the State, and goes to his office every day. I can still get, I eat three good meals a day.

POST CARD

Southern California's highways are the most romantic in the world. It is literally but a moment from thriving modern cities to the sleeping haciendas of the early Spanish Romancers. An hour's drive takes one from the shores of the beautiful Pacific to snow capped peaks, with golden flecked orange trees hanging in the valleys below. Resorts abound everywhere, and historical missions mark the route of the Padres. Modernity harmonizes charmingly with evidence everywhere of its glorious past.

Well, I had the best Xmas. I've had for years.
Harry came up Friday night. Saturday at one o'clock we went over to Yongs and got a lovely turkey Xmas. dinner, then went into Locus uptown to see "Crazy House", and nearly laughed our heads off. Next we came home and rested until six o'clock, when we started out to Percy and Kathleen Debb's for another turkey dinner.
The house was beautifully decorated, the dining-room lighted with silver candles, and in the middle of the table a white Xmas. tree lighted with blue and silver lights, after we had had everything from soup to nuts, we returned to the living-room for our coffee. Then the seven men went into the basement for a smoke and a talk on politics, which I'm sure would be most interesting, as there were conservatives, liberals and one C. C. Y. there. They all came up and joined us again in the living-room for an hour, when at 11.30, we started for home. Harry and I said an evening long to be remembered by us all.

Harry stayed till Sunday night, then took the train for Gravelhurst, where he stayed Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, returning that night - here again and remained till Friday noon, when he returned to Brighton.

Of course through all of this, I had to be most-careful of my eats, for I've had two very bad attacks of acute indigestion since I came up this time. I was supposed to go to the Medical Anti last Tuesday again for 7 days, but wasn't able to go.

Now I hope you won't be too tired to say before you finish to P.S. I'm so sorry I forgot to tell you in my letter, Stella Weston was down to see me again before I came away, and she told me my grandfather's name was Thomas Weston, and that is he, who is buried in Salem Cemetery. William Henry was a half brother to my mother. Now I seem to have things straightened out a little better. You see my dear mother was only two years of age when her father died. How is your book coming along Ray? Best wishes,

Dear Ray.

Must apologize for not answering your letter sooner. Thank you so much for forwarding paper which I had entirely forgotten as well as the bill for tobacco which was first class. Had hoped to drop in and see you when passing but we were completely snowed in and only were able to get to the highway by car about three weeks ago.

I have been very busy in interior decoration all winter as the old house was badly in need of repair. We have about 4 acres of woods with several opening streams and have a fine view of the lake. There are possibilities to the place - a large lawn with a big foot in one corner fed by two springs - hedge on three sides and various planted perennials until the frost intervened. It will be several years before we get the place in shape as nothing has been done as to upkeep for some years.

Regarding the family history - have not had time to look over a few notes I jotted down from talking to Grandmother & in fact so many of our things are still packed I don't know where the notes are.
Will certainly be glad to get in touch with you later on the family subject but just now we are so busy we hardly know where to turn.

Would be very glad to see you any time this summer when we hope to have things at least partially straightened out.

I hope your mother is quite well, and with kindest regards to your self. I remain Yours sincerely

Dear Ray: Appreciate your prompt reply. Wonder why we have turned while Pete HCB has folded his glossy wings!

Are you satisfied with the Brief Pioneer genealogy? My notes may not be much but (thru HCB) House of Hawley - Prothman track 1909 - fathered by Robert Hawley in honor of his father "Aaron the Martyr" plus some notes from Hartford Times July 31 1943 and the Hawley Record by Elias S Hawley, the Loyalist Claims (but archive, etc make a funny account. Alone each of these do not serve ^{also "Hawley & Mason Ancestry"} our purpose.

Conventionally three brothers came from England

Joseph Hawley; to Mass, Thomas Hawley to Rhode Island;

Robert Hawley; Hannah M. Beard; Elizabeth M. South; which is all, given for the 1st generation

In his will Joseph Hawley of Conn. "I give to my son Samuel Hawley all of my lands and slogs in Romsdige in Dorsetshire old England, to him, his heirs & assigns". This is now Putnam ab. 4 mls from Ashbourne Eng.
Samuel just claimed the English lands to his sons, brother Nathaniel no further record.

Joseph & his wife Katherine Biddle, & child settled at an Indian plantation Copley which became later Stratford Conn.

Joseph served as town clerk, had tremendous land claims - was 87 at time of death - left wife & 8 children - in will mention Ephraim, Joseph, Samuel, John, Elizabeth, Hannah Mary

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of a solution of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system of equations (1) has a solution for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied. This condition is also necessary for the existence of a solution of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β .

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I shivered as I walked down the stairs, my hands tucked into my pockets. The ground beneath my feet was hard and dry, a stark difference from the soft, spongy earth of the rainforest. I took a deep breath, the air crisp and clean, and felt a sense of adventure wash over me. This was it, the beginning of a journey I had dreamed of for so long. I looked up at the vast, open sky, feeling a sense of freedom and possibility. The world was so big, and I was finally here.

2. As I walked further into the park, the scenery changed. The dry, open fields gave way to rolling hills covered in lush green grass. In the distance, I could see the silhouettes of mountains, their peaks shrouded in mist. The air was still, and the only sound was the soft rustle of leaves under my feet. I stopped for a moment, taking in the beauty of the landscape. It was like a painting, so perfect and serene. I felt a sense of peace and tranquility that I had never experienced before. This was a special place, a hidden gem in the heart of the wilderness. I knew that whatever happened next, I was going to cherish every moment of it.

3. The sun was low in the sky, casting a warm, golden glow over the landscape. I walked on, my feet sinking slightly into the soft earth. The air was thick with the scent of wildflowers, and I could hear the distant call of a bird. I felt a sense of wonder and awe, knowing that I was witnessing something truly remarkable. The world was so full of beauty and mystery, and I was finally beginning to understand it. I took another deep breath, feeling the sun on my face and the wind in my hair. This was my chance, my moment to shine. I knew that I was going to make the most of it, to create memories that would last a lifetime. I was going to live, to love, to laugh, and to dream. And I was going to do it all in the most beautiful place I had ever seen.

My dear Ray, I was very glad to hear from you and to hear that your mother keeps very well. How fortunate you are to have her so long. I only had my mother till she was 70. You brought up the name of so many friends who are beyond this world - just left us. But where they are waiting for us. But I mustn't attempt to scribble too much. I wrote a letter ^{to my mother} yesterday to Mrs Dilly Burlington - herein I made a retrospect of all old faces that used to be in St. Andrews and that I remembered what joys I had, what remembrances were!

Perhaps I ought to begin now and try to answer my many and very many questions. You letter is to Roger family tree. Some questions I can answer at once. I do not wish to say anything about my college and final school work as all was due to the loving and devoted of mother. Who served and served for years that might have just been the boy. When she lived in Ottawa with me (my youngest years) and moved up in the veranda waiting for me and when she saw me always the same words 'What is my boy' that my dear Ray is still my brother my loving to read her way, again. You have no idea how I long to see her and hear her speak from - and just to touch her hand.

Now I feel I am again collaborating (with) to some. In grandfather's Will Bible I found the marriage certificate dated 20 Jan 1848 of William James Wells and Mary Perine Webster, both of Township of Granville and in the Newcastle district. By Rev. T. A. of M. Episcopal Church, witnesses being Thos O. Sanford and Sophia T. Webster, who for many years was their but of course was not then in 1848, as signature was fine. The district of Newcastle is mostly of note, as the old town of Newcastle on the point was then not as the capital of said district.

I also have a list of birth and death of some of his children.

As you know the only brother of William James Wells was - oldest B. Wells and Dr. Charles R. Wells, father of Mrs. Hughes of United Lake Ill. and who practiced medicine there till he was 93 years old. He of course was as much younger than that grandfather - remember being there when I was a boy.

All I wish you to say about me is that I was all to my dear mother. The Grandpa Wells whom was there I got information

Grandma ^{well} never went to bed without reading her Bible at night. I never saw the faintest semblance of cross-ness on her face. After dinner or mid-day and ^{other} a sleep 15 minutes sleep, up she got and spun yarn with the old-fashioned big spinning wheel. How I wish I had it now. I used to try hard to spin, but never could learn. Grandma just smiled, that's all. In evening she always knit socks or mittens - I would hold the skein on my arm while she rolled up a ball of yarn. She was the daughter of the Rev. Joshua Webster of 1812 American War, and whose war record I was given to the National Archives of Washington, he being an officer in the New York regiment. His genealogical descent from 1st Gen. & Comdrant, was sent to me by the Historical Society of Connecticut State Library at Hartford.

The year 1817, was a little unique. In your letter you said Aquila Hawley married Jennie Wells. Strange but in spring of same year 1817 Rev. Joshua Webster married Rebecca Merriam daughter of Joel Merriam, ^{Wells & Luntown} of Loltown. I always understood especially from Kate Miller Lockwood, that the Merriams came over to U.S. in 1640 with the Pilgrims father. So that prob. in with the picture you saw of Nathaniel Merriam being a Pilgrims-son.

I don't know if I can say much more for the subject of family trees is so confusing. You should be here to see what I have. No I do not know what the B stands for in Orest B. Wells.
Clayton's ^{father's name} ought to know. I believe he is still living.

Dear Ray, I am a Wells (though not in name) 100 yrs. Hence, living, but in the land and also trouble all went together. I fancy that would be the story of all families. Hence I can't say much more - except that as I am so removed of Rev Joshua Webster and his great efforts, - the way Sophia T. Webster whom I mentioned was the

I was going to say, (under you) like Dr. Linnell, - if I could have as a heirloom, Joshua took 2 marriages. I would
